Film School for IDPs Children. Project Launch

Tetiana Godok
Past-President ReC Ukraine

IDP Challenge of Ukraine

- Over 7 million people displaced, including 25% children
- Limited access to basic services, housing shortages, and economic instability
- Mental health issues, such as PTSD and depression

Why Film School?

- ☀ Through the process of making films, children can express their experiences, emotions, and perspectives, helping them to process trauma and build resilience
- ☀ Collaborative and engaging activity conducive to healing and personal growth
- ☀ Learning practical skills in a creative and stimulating environment
- ☀ Film projects raise awareness about the experiences of displaced children and contribute to advocacy efforts on their behalf.

Project Objectives

The scope of the Project: Creative Trip to Bonn, Germany

Budget 10 000 USD In search of direct contributions

No child in the world should have to endure this!

The play began in a shelter while battles were still raging near Kyiv in 2022. It is performed by children aged 7 to 17 and involves 22 children and three adults who accompany and assist in the performance.

The play "True Heroes" created based on the memories of the children who fled from Kherson, Mariupol, Luhansk, Mykolaiv...

The scope of the Project: Creative Trip to Bonn, Germany

Budget 10 000 USD In search of direct contributions

We believe it's essential for audiences worldwide to hear the stories of Ukrainian children

We have prior agreements with a Ukrainian community organization in Bonn and the Bonn City Council but will be happy to extend the tour to other cities of Europe.
